

Dept. of English

Programme outcomes:

B.A. English focuses on developing communication skills in English to the students with techniques of effective communication through English. It introduces literary genres literary texts which focuses on the finer aspects of language, literature and allied subjects and prepares students to compose research articles. It also takes into account the critical approaches to literature.